

MFSA
Mailing & Fulfillment Service Association

President and CEO

The Mailing and Fulfillment Services Association (MFSA) is seeking a dynamic and energetic individual of impeccable character and integrity for the position of President / CEO. The successful candidate will provide the vision and leadership necessary to aggressively deal with emerging industry issues and opportunities that impact the membership. As a highly visible chief executive the President must interact with senior level government, postal and industry executives. Strategic planning and execution, membership development and team building are only part of the interesting responsibilities associated with this challenging yet rewarding position.

MFSA is a highly respected and influential international trade association with over 700 member companies. The fundamental purpose of MFSA is to promote the general welfare of the industry and the membership by encouraging the interchange of views on sales, production, operations, account services and other aspects of the mailing and fulfillment service business. The association provides educational seminars, list serves, conferences and publications as the primary methods of providing member benefits. The 80 plus year old organization headquartered in Alexandria, Virginia with a staff of seven is seeking a successor to the retiring President / CEO.

The position demands an individual with proven leadership skills and senior level management experience of 5 or more years. A background in association management or industry experience is highly desirable but not a requirement for consideration. Building a vision, creativity, leadership and executing a strategy are necessary attributes needed to be successful in this position. Strong consideration will be given for an individual shown to have the ability to build an organization and make it stronger, better and more effective.

MFSA offers a highly competitive salary and benefits package. Applications will be accepted through August 15th. If you want a chance at a rewarding and exciting opportunity, please submit your cover letter, resume with references and salary history to: mfsa08@gmail.com
